In Loving Memory...

George "Bryce" Barden (1907-2000)

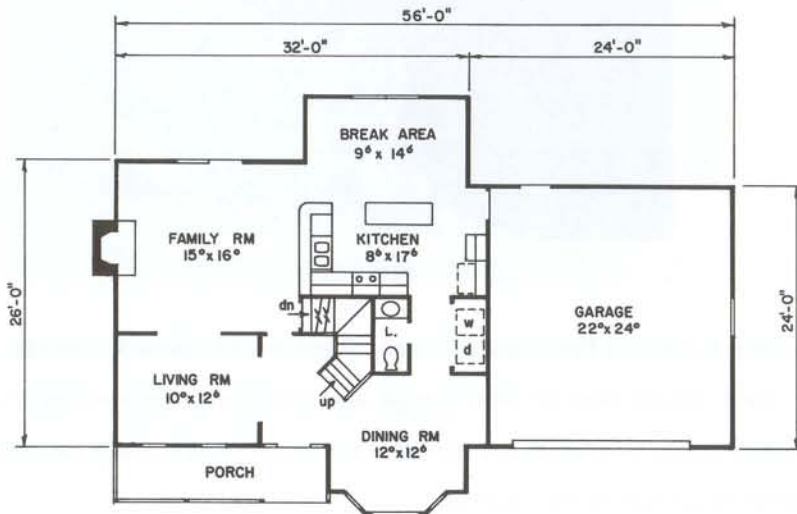

This publication is dedicated to the memory of George "Bryce" Barden, affectionately known as "Parpar" by his family). As a graduate of Colgate University and Harvard Business School, he joined The Barden & Robeson Corporation in 1931 and served as President from 1952-1989. His community achievements include President of Rotary, President of Lakeside Country Club, Trustee of the First Presbyterian Church and Senator of the State of New York.. Bryce was an avid bridge and golf player as well as an accomplished tennis player. He took great pride in knowing that we have in our employ, young people, many of whom are the sons and daughters of other employees. He will be sadly missed by his family, friends, employees, and everyone whose life he touched.
